BOMMALATTAM TAMIL DEPT - 01.11.2025

GBPS students beautifully presented the traditional Tamil puppetry art form, Bommalattam, through an engaging Depiction of the Ramayanam. With carefully crafted puppets and expressive storytelling, they brought heroic characters and timeless moments from the epic to life, on stage.

This activity not only showcased their creativity and coordination but also helped them connect deeply with our cultural roots. Through Bommalattam, the students celebrated the richness of Tamil heritage while learning the values and life lessons portrayed in the Ramayanam.

Bommalattam – Where tradition comes alive!

CAREER COUNSELLING - 01.11.2025

Our GBPS students and parents took part in an inspiring Career Counselling session led by our distinguished Resource Person, Mr. Mani Renganathan, Educational Consultant and Career Coach. He offered valuable insights on academic pathways, emerging career opportunities, and essential skills for future readiness. The interactive session encouraged students and parents to ask questions, discuss their aspirations, and gain clarity about various career choices. This meaningful interaction helped families understand how to guide their children effectively, making the session both informative and motivating. It empowered students to set clear goals and inspired parents to support their children's journey with confidence.

Career Clarity Through Expert Guidance!

ART WORKSHOP - 01.11.2025

GBPS students of the Middle School explored art and craft with enthusiasm and creativity, learning new techniques and expressing their ideas through colours, shapes, and handmade designs. Their hard work and imagination came together beautifully in the Art & Craft Exhibition, where each piece reflected originality and dedication. The exhibition showcased a wonderful collection of drawings, models, paper crafts, and creative artworks that highlighted the students' skills and passion for learning. It was a proud moment for everyone as the young artists confidently presented their creations to teachers, parents, and visitors.

Young creators, infinite ideas – Art crafted with brilliance!
